Romanian Preparatory Year

Information about the Romanian Preparatory Year

The Romanian Preparatory Year is dedicated to foreign students who do not know Romanian and want to attend graduate and postgraduate studies in Romanian.

The Romanian courses are held within 1 (one) academic year (2 semesters x 14 weeks) for undergraduate / masters / PhD studies. It is mandatory to participate at the Romanian courses.

Categories of students:

1. Romanian diaspora

In the category Romanian diaspora, according to the Law no. 299/2007 regarding the support given to Romanian diaspora republished with the further changes and additions, are included:

- a) People who freely assume the Romanian cultural identity. People with Romanian origins, those who pertain to the Romanian linguistic and cultural lode, who live outside the Romanian borders, regardless of how they are called (Armani, Armânji, Aromanian, Bassarabian, inhabitants of Bucovina, Kutso-Vlach, Daco-Romanian, Macedo-Romanian, Herten, Istro-Romanian, Latino Danubians, inhabitants of Maramureş, Megleno-Romanian, Moldavian, Moldovlach, Rrămâni, Rumâni, Vlach, Voloch, Macedo- Armânji) as well as all the other lexical forms that are semantically related with those above.
- b) Romanian emigrants, whether they kept or not Romanian citizenship, their descendants as well as Romanian citizens with residence abroad.

Romanian diaspora who do not know Romanian will attend the Romanian Preparatory Year according to the legislation in force.

- c) Romanian diaspora who gained language competences in non-formal or informal environments can obtain proof of these competences through an evaluation (B1 minimum level) according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Language Learning. The evaluation and certification can be organized in national accredited higher education institutions which organize the Romanian Preparatory Year for foreign citizens or abroad through Romanian lectureship at the Romanian Language Institute or at the Romanian Cultural Institute through transparent procedures.

2. Foreign citizens from EU member states and non-EU

Foreign citizens are people who have the citizenship of a European Union state or third country.

Foreign citizens can enroll in the Romanian Preparatory Year within higher education institutions according to the legislation regarding the organization and functioning of the Romanian Preparatory Year.
